NOTICE OF A POSTPONED EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Since the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders called for November 17, 2011 did not reach the legal quorum of 50%, the Board of Directors invites shareholders to a new Postponed Extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders to be held in Liège, at the company's head office at 16, rue Bois St-Jean, B-4102 Seraing, on Monday December 5, 2011, at 11.00 am, with the same agenda.

Agenda:

- 1. Amendments to the Articles of Association with the view to making them consistent with the law of December 20, 2010 regarding the exercise of certain rights of shareholders of listed companies:

Proposed resolution: The articles 20 to 25bis are amended to henceforth read as follows:

Article twenty.

§1. The general meeting, regularly composed, represents all the shareholders.

Its powers are those determined by law and by the present Articles of Association.

The annual general meeting of the shareholders is automatically held on the third Tuesday of the month of May at eleven a.m.

If that day is a statutory holiday, the annual general meeting is held on the next following working day, at the same hour.

An extraordinary general meeting is held each time the company's interest so requires. It must be convened at the request of one or several shareholders holding one tenth of the share capital.

The general meetings, both annual and extraordinary, are held at the registered offices or at any other place mentioned in the notice of the meeting.

§2. Except as otherwise provided by law, notices of meetings of shareholders include the items legally required by article 533bis of the Company code and are made public at least thirty days prior to the date of the meeting in the Belgian State Gazette, in at least one newspaper having a national reach as well as in media through which an efficient communication of the information in the European economic area may be expected and which are accessible swiftly and without discrimination.

Notices of meetings of shareholders are made at least thirty days prior to the date of the meeting to the holders of shares, bonds and warrants in registered form, to the directors and to the statutory auditors. This notification is made by ordinary letter, unless the addressees have expressly accepted in writing and individually to receive the notice by another means of communication. The effective completion of this formality does not need to be evidenced.

If a new notice is necessary because the required quorum for the first convened meeting is not met and provided that the first notice satisfied the conditions set forth in the first alinea of this paragraph, that the date of the second meeting was stated in the first notice and that the agenda does not include any new item, the timeframe referred to in the first alinea of this paragraph may be shortened to seventeen days prior to the meeting.

§3. One or several shareholders representing together at least 3% of the share capital of the company may request that items be put on the agenda of the meeting of shareholders and submit proposals of resolutions regarding items put or to be put on the agenda. These requests must comply with the requirements set forth at article 533ter of the Company code. The admissibility of the items to review and of the proposals of resolutions further to the present article is subject to the registration, in accordance with article 21 of the present Articles of Association, of the relevant portion of the share capital of the company. The company makes public, in accordance with articles 533, § 2, of the Company code, an agenda supplemented with the additional items to be reviewed and the corresponding proposals of resolutions and/or the proposals of resolutions which would have been submitted on their own, at the latest the fifteenth day prior to the date of the meeting of shareholders. Simultaneously, the company makes available to the shareholders, on its Internet website, the forms which may be used for purposes of voting by proxy and, if applicable, of voting by correspondence, supplemented with the additional items to be reviewed and the corresponding proposals of resolutions and/or the proposals of resolutions which would have been submitted on their own.

§4. Any person who attends or is represented at a meeting of shareholders is deemed to have been validly convened. Any person who is prevented from attending a meeting of shareholders may, before or after said meeting, waive all rights it could assert from the absence or invalidity of a notice.

Article twenty-one.

§1. The right to attend a meeting of shareholders and to vote is subject to the registration of the shares in the name of the shareholder the fourteenth day preceding the meeting of shareholders, at midnight (Belgian time) (hereinafter, the registration date), by their registration on the register of the shares in registered form of the company, by their registration in the accounts of a licensed acountholder or of a settlement institution or by depositing the shares in bearer form with a financial intermediary (until December 15, 2011), without taking into account the number of shares held by the shareholder on the date of the meeting of shareholders.

The owners of shares in book-entry form who wish to attend the meeting of shareholders must provide a statement issued by their financial intermediary or licensed acountholder certifying the number of shares in book-entry form registered in the name of the shareholder in its accounts on the registration date and for which the shareholder wishes to attend to the meeting of shareholders. The statement must be filed at the registered offices of the company or with the institutions identified in the notices of the meetings of shareholders, at the latest on the sixth day prior to the date of the meeting..

The owners of shares in bearer form (until December 15, 2011) who wish to attend the meeting of shareholders must provide a statement issued by their financial intermediary or licensed acountholder certifying the number of shares in bearer form deposited on the registration date and for which the shareholder wishes to attend to the meeting of shareholders. The deposit must be made at the registered offices of the company or with the institutions identified in the notices of the meetings of shareholders, at the latest on the sixth day prior to the date of the meeting.

The owners of shares in registered form who wish to attend the meeting of shareholders must inform their intention to the company, by registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt or by electronic courier with acknowledgment of receipt, at the address specified in the notice of the meeting of shareholders, sent at the latest on the sixth day prior to the date of the meeting.

The bondholders may attend the meeting of shareholders but in an advisory capacity only, provided that the formalities described in the preceding two alineas of this paragraph have been complied with.

§2. A register drawn up by the Board of Directors specifies, for each shareholder who expressed his wish to attend the meeting of shareholders, its name or corporate name and address or registered offices, the number of shares held on the registration date and for which he declared his wish to attend the meeting of shareholders as well as a description of the documentation evidencing the holding of shares on the registration date.

Article twenty-two.

Each shareholder may be represented at the meeting of shareholders by a proxy, shareholder or not.

The spouses are entitled to represent each other.

The proxy must be given in writing or in electronic form, be duly signed by the shareholder (or, if the shareholder is not the final effective economic beneficiary, by the final effective economic beneficiary) possibly by way of an advanced electronic signature within the meaning of article 4, § 4 of the law of July 9, 2001 regarding certain rules related to the legal framework of electronic signatures and the certification services or by a means of electronic signature which satisfies the conditions set forth in article 1322 of the Civil code, and be received by the company at the location specified in the notice of the meeting at the latest the sixth day preceding the meeting. Any proxy not signed by the final effective economic beneficiary shall be deemed invalid.

The shareholder may appoint in relation to a given meeting of shareholders only one person as proxy, except as otherwise provided in the Company code.

The notice of the meeting of shareholders may determine a specific form of proxy.

Article twenty-three.

The meeting of shareholders is chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or in his absence, by the oldest director.

The Chairman appoints the secretary and the meeting of shareholders appoints one or two tellers.

For each resolution, the minutes specify the number of shares for which votes have been validly cast, the fraction of the share capital represented by these votes, the total number of votes validly cast, the number of votes cast for or against each resolution and, if applicable, the number of abstentions.

The minutes of meetings of shareholders are signed by the officers of the meeting and by the shareholders who so wish. Extracts of the minutes to be delivered to third parties are signed by the Chairman or by two directors.

Article twenty-four.

Each share carries one voting right.

Article twenty-five.

Except in the cases where other conditions of quorum or majority are required by law, the meeting of shareholders is regularly composed and deliberates validly regardless of the number of shares represented. The resolutions are adopted by a simple majority of the votes cast without taking the abstentions into account.

Article twenty-five bis. - Right to ask questions

Upon publication of the notice of the meeting of shareholders, the shareholders who satisfy the formalities of article 21 of the present Articles of Association have the right, to the extent the communication of data or facts would not be detrimental to the commercial interests of the company or to the confidentiality undertakings entered into by the company, its directors or statutory auditors, to ask written questions to the directors in relation to the annual management report or items of the agenda as well as to the statutory auditors in relation to their report. Any written question must be sent to the company by registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt or by electronic courier at the address specified in the notice of the meeting of shareholders and be received by the company at the latest six days prior to the relevant meeting.
